Dear CACJ Liaisons

1 I am pleased to introduce our new Master of Laws in Judicial Studies programme to you. This programme is jointly offered by our College and the Singapore Management University. It has the following distinct features:

- First of its kind in the region
- Higher judicial learning for judges by judges
- Advanced substantive law modules and judgecraft
- Management and innovation modules
- Judge and professorial faculty
- Practicum with the Singapore Judiciary
- Opportunity to undertake empirical judicial research that will benefit the home jurisdictions of candidates
- Full-time or extended duration
- Entry to a new and growing alumni network of judges

More information about the programme is also available online at <https://law.smu.edu.sg/llm/judicial-studies-track>.

2 I am very pleased to inform you that there are now six (6) full tuition-only scholarships for international candidates funded by Jones Day and Lee Foundation available for application: <http://law.smu.edu.sg/llm/fees-scholarships>.

3 Applications for enrolment for the inaugural August 2020 intake is now open till 1 May 2020: <https://law.smu.edu.sg/llm/online-application>. We look forward to your judges applying for the Masters programme.

Thank you.

With warmest regards
Paul
